Look Left Look Right presents a documentary theatre piece about the British Floods of Summer 2007

In Summer 2007 severe flooding across the UK brought misery to thousands of people. One year on and over 2,200 households were still living in caravans. Following months of research and interviews, Look Left Look Right present a documentary theatre piece which hears word for word how everyday people cope in a crisis. Performed in a caravan to an audience of just 8, experience a documentary up close. Early booking recommended.

Original concept Mimi Poskitt. Edited by Liam O'Driscoll, Mimi Poskitt & Ben Freedman.
